Dayley Dance Academy NW POLICIES & PROCEDURES

FIRST CLASS:

Returning Students will be provisionally placed in class based on an evaluation from the previous academic year. However, the teacher has the authority to reassess a class level, following an evaluation of the student's first class.

OBSERVING CLASSES:

Family and friends are invited to observe the last 10 minutes of classes only when a special invitation has been granted. Individuals not registered for the class will be expected to remain outside the classroom during instruction to help our dancers and instructors maintain focus.

TRIAL CLASSES:

DDANW provides students an opportunity to participate in a class before registering. This class is considered a Trial Class and there is a drop-in fee for each one taken. If a student registers for the class that they participated in the fee is then credited toward their tuition. If a student takes multiple Trial Classes, only the fee for the class(es) they register for will be credited. Trial fees are non-refundable.

ABSENCES:

Good attendance is imperative to a dancer's progress. DDANW administration and faculty appreciate advance notice of necessary absences. Students will be allowed four make-up classes at or below their level for each class they are registered for. Students with inconsistent attendance may be dismissed from their class and/or moved to another class. Failure to attend regularly may result in removal from performances.

TARDINESS:

The slow warm-up of muscles is crucial to the prevention of injury. Students more than 10 minutes late may be asked by their teacher to sit and observe the class or take time to warm up on their own.

MAKE-UP CLASSES:

Students are entitled to 4 make-up classes per class they are enrolled in. Make-up slips should be obtained from DDANW office prior to the make-up class. Make-up slips are also found online. Dancers may not use make-ups to enroll in a new class. Make-up classes cannot be used during May or June prior to June Showcase, unless the dancer is doing a make-up in a non-performance class. Note: there may not be a make-up class available for the same genre class depending on enrollment capacity.

INJURY OR LOSS OF PROPERTY: The risk of injury exists in any physical activity. Please consider this before enrolling your child. DDANW cannot be held responsible for personal injury or loss of property. Personal possessions should not be left in the lobby or restrooms under any circumstances; this includes Cell Phones and Chargers.

BULLYING:

If you feel you are a victim or witness of bullying, tell an adult you trust; your teacher, parent, or administrator in the DDANW office. Do not fight back or join in any bullying. DDANW is a Bully Free Zone. Those individuals, who choose to be violent or intimidate others verbally or by using harsh body language, will be suspended from the studio with an obligation to continue paying tuition for 30 days until a decision is made by DDANW regarding a return to classes.

PHOTOS AND/OR VIDEOS POLICY:

In registering your child, we have your permission to use class, studio, or performance photos/film in marketing, publication, editorial, art projects, or other uses deemed appropriate by DDANW, and agree to the "Photograph/Film Release" below. If you object, please submit your objection in writing at the time of registration. Parents may only take photos or videos on observation days with the approval of the instructor and DDANW Administration.

Photograph/Film Release: I grant Dayley Dance Academy NW, Mark Dayley Photography and Associates ("DDANW") the absolute and irrevocable right and unrestricted permission concerning any photographs that DDA has taken or may take of me or my minor child ("Dancer") or in which Dancer may be included with others, to use, reuse, publish, and republish the photographs or video ("Photographs") in whole or in part, individually or in connection with other material, in any and all media now or hereafter known, including the internet, and for any purpose whatsoever, specifically including illustration, promotion, art, editorial, advertising, and trade, without restriction as to alteration; and to use Dancer name in connection with any use if DDANW so chooses. I release and discharge DDANW from any and all claims and demands that may arise out of or in connection with the use of the Photographs, including without limitation any and all claims for libel or violation of any right of publicity or privacy. In order to maintain a healthy environment for our dancers and patrons, we have implemented new protocols for health and safety and we ask that all dancers and family members/friends who enter our facilities adhere to the following:

Come Dressed - Plan ahead of time to be dressed for your dance class. To keep bacteria zones to a minimum, DDANW will not have an open dressing room. If it is absolutely necessary for a student to change at the studio, there are 2 bathrooms that are available.

Personal Items - For all dancers attending class, please have any and all personal items contained in a dance bag or cubby bin. Dancers will have access to a 12"x12" cubby space during class. Dance bags and cubby bins must be taken home at the end of class.

Water Bottles - DDANW has a water bottle filling station and water fountain. We ask that dancers bring a water bottle that is full from home so that they can remain in their classroom for the duration, if possible. They can use the filling station to refill as needed. This will help to keep our lobby less crowded and will minimize use of the water fountain as a place where germs land.

Drop off/Pick up - At the all-new DDANW building, we have an open drop-off zone in front of the building, with a clear line of sight to the front door. We ask for parents that do not NEED to stay to please drop students off and pick up directly after class to limit traffic in the lobby area. We ask that if possible, parents keep younger, additional siblings at home. Please keep babies/toddlers in strollers/carriers when not holding them.

Personal Hygiene Practices - Students will be asked if they have washed their hands and have an option to use hand sanitizer upon arrival. We ask that students do not cough or sneeze into the open air. Tissues will be provided for that little "tickle" that can sometimes happen unexpectedly and does not necessarily mean that a child is ill. Any child who is frequently touching their nose or mouth will be asked to wash their hands. Additionally, signs will be posted to help remind dancers of effective hygiene practices.

Illness Protocol - If any individual has any of the following symptoms and could be considered contagious, please stay home.

- Vomiting/diarrhea - in the past 24 hrs
- Fever - in the past 48 hours
- Cough/sore throat

Online Class Option for Illnesses - DDANW will make an online class available ONLY for dancers who must miss class due to potentially contagious symptoms. Please give advance notice for an online class request. This takes a lot of preparation and set-up. We will have limited access to an online option in the studio.

Your Health is Your Own! - Remember that you are ultimately responsible for your own health. Immune support supplements, proper nutrition, water consumption, and exercise all help in keeping bodies healthy and in building immunity to illness and disease.

I have read this "Health and Wellness" protocol and agree to promote these practices in conjunction with DDANW to establish a healthy and safe environment for learning.
